

or conspiracy with others named and unnamed, operated to deprive Plaintiff of her rights under the Constitution and the Laws of the United States:

- (a) Not to be arrested, indicted, prosecuted, detained, convicted, or imprisoned based upon false, fabricated, manufactured, misleading, or inherently unreliable "evidence," including the statements and testimony of witnesses who have been improperly influenced, coerced, or manipulated to provide such statements and testimony, in violation of the Due Process and Fair Trial Clauses of the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution;
- (b) Not to be deprived of her liberty absent probable cause to believe she has committed a crime, in violation of her rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; and
- (c) To timely disclosure of all material evidence favorable to the defense pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), and their progeny, and the Due Process and Fair Trial Clauses of the Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

The foregoing violations of Plaintiffs federal constitutional rights by the Defendants and their co-conspirators and accomplices, known and unknown, directly, substantially, proximately, and foreseeably caused the initiation and continuation of Plaintiffs criminal prosecution, her loss of liberty and detention, her wrongful conviction for disorderly conduct, her subsequent imprisonment, her restriction of movement and freedoms as specified in the order of protection the court ordered against her in the name of her batterer, Raheem Powell, her to be placed on a NYPD 'no services' list and her other injuries and damages. The foregoing violations of Plaintiffs rights amounted to Constitutional torts and were affected by actions taken under color of State law, and within the scope of the Defendants' employment and authority. Defendants committed the foregoing violations of Plaintiffs rights knowingly, intentionally, willfully, recklessly, and/or with deliberate indifference to Plaintiffs constitutional rights or to the effect of such misconduct upon Plaintiff's constitutional rights. 413. By reason of the foregoing, the Defendants are liable to Plaintiff, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, for compensatory and for punitive damages.

120. SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION (42 U.S.C. §1983; Denial Of Due Process Under the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments; Malicious Prosecution, Abuse of

Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments; Defendants: Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in ~~contained in~~ ¶1 through ¶121 of this complaint as if fully set forth herein

Knowing that any colorable cause to continue the prosecution had evaporated, Wells, in the capacity of an investigator or "witness," acted in concert and conspired with Strohbehn,

Wells, Moore, and others, named and unnamed, to use any means, no matter how unlawful or coercive, to intimidate them into falsely accusing Plaintiff of the charged crimes. These illegal and unconstitutional means included, but were not limited to,

(a) Abusing judicial process by misusing the court's subpoena power to compel witnesses to appear at Court and the Das office;

(b) Abusing judicial process by deceiving the court into issuing "orders of protection" restricting Plaintiff's liberties and freedom by: Personally attesting to "facts" which they knew were untrue in order to deceive the court into issue orders authorizing them to take custody of such plaintiff;

These lawless actions foreseeably caused the aforementioned witnesses to manufacture false evidence which Strohbehn and Simmons then used to continue Plaintiffs malicious prosecution, without probable cause, and for Wells to bring about her false conviction at trial.

The foregoing violations of Plaintiffs federal constitutional rights by the Defendants, together with their co-conspirators and accomplices, known and unknown, directly, substantially, proximately, and foreseeably caused the continuation of Plaintiffs malicious prosecution without probable cause, her wrongful imprisonment, and her other injuries and damages. The foregoing violations of Plaintiffs rights amounted to Constitutional torts and were affected by actions taken under color of State law, and within the scope of the Defendants' employment and authority. Defendants committed the foregoing violations of Plaintiffs rights knowingly, intentionally, willfully, recklessly, negligently, and/or with deliberate indifference to Plaintiffs constitutional rights or to the effect of such misconduct upon Plaintiffs constitutional rights. By reason of the foregoing, the Defendants are liable to Plaintiff, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, for compensatory and for punitive damages.

121. EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Monell/42 U.S.C. § 1983: Claim Against Defendant

City of New York For The Actions Of The NYPD) Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in contained in ¶1 through ¶121 as if fully set forth herein. The foregoing violations of Plaintiffs federal constitutional rights and injuries were further directly, foreseeably, proximately, and substantially caused by conduct, chargeable to Defendant City, amounting to deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of persons, including Plaintiff, who are investigated, arrested, or prosecuted for alleged criminal activities. Prior to Plaintiffs arrest, policymaking officials at the NYPD, with deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of individuals suspected or accused of criminal activity, to the risk of arresting, prosecuting and convicting innocent people, and to the right of all criminal suspects and defendants to due process and a fair trial, implemented plainly inadequate policies, procedures, regulations, practices, customs, training, supervision, and discipline concerning:

- (a) The use of excessive promises of rewards with witnesses, including drug dealers and and/or individuals fearing prosecution and imprisonment for their own criminal behavior;

- (b) The determination of probable cause to make an arrest; and
- (c) The continuing duty of police investigators to preserve and to make timely disclosure to the District Attorney, during criminal investigations and prosecutions, of all material evidence or information ("Brady material") favorable to a person suspected, accused or convicted of criminal conduct, including, but not limited to, evidence of innocence, evidence that an identifying or prosecution witness is unreliable or lacks general credibility, evidence that a prosecution witness has made inconsistent statements about material facts, and evidence that a prosecution witnesses has a motive, bias or interest affecting his credibility or has been pressured or coerced, so that the District Attorney could comply with his constitutional obligation to disclose such information to the defense under Brady.

With respect to "a" and "c" in the preceding paragraph, prior to Plaintiffs arrest and the initiation of her prosecution the NYPD or the MDAO provided no training at all in regards to how a DV complaintant should be evaluated or the efficacy of their complaints as victims should they be suspected of fabricating their injuries. What further review other than the cursory nods by individuals who had not investigated the facts is needed to brandish such a title on a crime victim/complaintant? What review exists to ensure an investigation is in fact undertaken? What checks and balances are in place to ensure innocent victims are not falsely branded "fabricators" enabeling their abusers to use the criminal justice system against them to control their lives and alter the freedoms and liberties most citizens enjoy? To imprison them and cause them public shame, emotional distress, loss of income and loss of private and professional standing? The aforesaid deliberate or de facto policies, procedures, regulations, practices and/or customs (including the failure to properly instruct, train, supervise and/or discipline employees with regard thereto) were implemented or tolerated by policymaking officials for the Defendant City of New York, including but not limited to, the New York City Police Commissioner, who knew (or should have known):

- a) to a moral certainty that such policies, procedures, regulations, practices and/or customs concern issues that regularly arise in the investigation and prosecution of criminal cases;
- b) that such issues either present police employees with difficult choices of the sort that instruction, training and/or supervision will make less difficult or that the need for further instruction, training, supervision and/or discipline was demonstrated by a history of police employees mishandling such situations as well as the incentives that police employees have to make the wrong choice; and
- c) that the wrong choice by such employees concerning such issues will frequently cause the deprivation of the constitutional rights of criminal suspects or defendants and cause them constitutional injury.

The aforementioned policymaking officials had the knowledge and the notice alleged in the preceding paragraph based upon, among other circumstances: Plaintiff has obtained amicus briefs and affidavit testimony from present and former Domestic Violence advocacy groups, establishing, prior to and during the time period of Plaintiffs arrest and prosecution, the NYPD and MDAO provided no training concerning appropriate interrogation of Domestic Violence complaintents suspected of being fabricators. formal reports of the N.Y.C. Comptroller's Office and the Bar Association of the City of New York criticizing the NYPD and the N.Y.C. Law Department for failing to follow up substantial civil settlements for police misconduct with disciplinary or other remedial action; and the inherent obviousness of the need to train, supervise and discipline police officers in such obligations to counteract the pressure on officers and the powerful incentives they have to close cases and to obtain arrests and convictions. Under the principles of municipal liability for federal civil rights violations, the City's Police Commissioner (or his authorized delegates), has final responsibility for training, instructing, supervising, and disciplining police personnel with respect to the investigation and prosecution of criminal matters, including constitutional requirements governing the interrogation of witnesses, the initiation of criminal prosecutions, and the disclosure of Brady material. The Police Commissioner, personally and/or through his authorized delegates, at all relevant times had final authority, and constitutes a City policymaker for whom the City is liable, with respect to compliance by NYPD employees with the above-mentioned constitutional requirements.

122. During all times material to this Complaint, the Police Commissioner owed a duty to the public at large and to Plaintiff, which he knowingly and intentionally breached, or to which he was deliberately indifferent, to implement policies, procedures, customs, practices, training and discipline sufficient to prevent or deter conduct by his subordinates violating the aforementioned constitutional rights of criminal suspects or defendants and of other members of the public. The aforesaid policies, procedures, regulations, practices and/or customs of Defendant City and the NYPD were collectively and individually a substantial factor in bringing about the aforesaid violations by the Individual Police Defendants of Plaintiffs rights under the Constitution and laws of the United States. By virtue of the foregoing, Defendant City of New York is liable for having substantially caused the foregoing violations of Plaintiffs constitutional rights and her constitutional injuries.

123. NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Monell/42 U.S.C. § 1983 Claim Against Defendant

City Of New York For Actions Of The MDAO) Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in ¶1 through ¶121 of this complaint as if fully set forth herein. At the time of Plaintiffs original prosecution, and continuing, District Attorney Cyrus Vance Jr, as the manager and chief administrator of the MDAO, a City agency, maintained a policy, custom and/or practice of deliberate indifference to violations by his employees of the constitutional rights of individuals who made complaints as victims of domestic violence whose batterers held information critical to other investigations and criminally prosecuted in New York County, including, but not limited to, abuse of process, manufacturing of false evidence and testimony through improper coercion of witnesses, Brady violations, reliance on false or misleading evidence and argument at trial ("the policy"), and covering up the same. The policy permits, encourages, or acquiesces in the commission of, constitutional violations of the rights of suspects and defendants by prosecutors, detective-investigators, and NYPD detectives working with the D.A. 's Office, particularly in high profile or serious cases where arrest and conviction is most desired by the Office. The policy led directly to the violations of Plaintiffs constitutional rights, and the subsequent cover-up of police and prosecutors' wrongdoing, which greatly prolonged Plaintiffs wrongful imprisonment, seizure and other damages. Vance had no employee handbook, manual, or other document setting forth any process for evaluating "fabricators". Defendant CITY is liable for having substantially caused the foregoing violations of Plaintiffs constitutional rights and his resultant injuries.

124. TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Negligent Hiring, Training and Supervision Under

State Law; Defendant City of New York) Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained contained in ¶1 through ¶121 of this Complaint. By virtue of the foregoing, defendant City of New York is liable to plaintiff because of its intentional, deliberately indifferent, careless, reckless, and/or negligent failure to adequately hire, train, supervise, and discipline its agents, servants and/or employees employed by the MDAO and or the NYPD with regard to their aforementioned duties.

- 125. 11th Cause of Action: 42 U.S.C. §1983; Denial Of Due Process Under the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments; Abuse of Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments; Defendants: the NYPD and the MDAO, as a matter of policy, stripped Miss Plaintiff of her First Amendment Rights to to petition the Government for redress of grievances:

- 126. 12th Cause of Action: 42 U.S.C. §1983; Unreasonable Search & Seizure Under the XXX and X Amendments; Abuse of Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments; Defendants: knowingly kept her under unreasonable seizure for an elongated period of time during her false arrest and drawn-out prosecution lasting approximately two years (during which the seizure continued) denying her of her Fourth Amendment right against unreasonable searches and seizures.

- 127. 13th Cause of Action: 42 U.S.C. §1983; Excessive & Unusual Punishment Under the Eighth Amendment; Abuse of Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the XXX and XX Amendments; Defendants: eschewed Plaintiff her Eighth Amendment rights by denying her police services asserting excessive and unusual punishment

128. 14th Cause of Action: 42 U.S.C. §1983; Right to a Speedy Trial Under the XXX Amendment; Abuse of Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the XXX and XX Amendments; Defendants: deprived Plaintiff her Sixth Amendment rights to enjoy the right to a speedy trial,
129. 15th Cause of Action: 42 U.S.C. §1983; Deprivations of life, liberty or property without due process of the law; Under the 14th Amedment Abuse of Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the XXX and XX Amendments; Defendants: Denied Plaintiff her Fourteenth Amendment rights to not be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of the law:
130. 16th Cause of Action: 42 U.S.C. §1983; Right to Equal Protection Under the Law Under the 16th Amendment; Abuse of Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the XXX and XX Amendments; Defendants: as well as her Sixteenth Amendment right to equal protection under the law.
131. 17th Cause of Action: 42 U.S.C. §1983; Right to Not be Wrongfully Confined Under the XXth Amendment; Abuse of Process, and Deprivation of Liberty Under the XXX and XX Amendments; Defendants: Wrongful Confinement: Plaintiff was held for between eight to ten days at Rikers Island and in the tombs at 100 Centre street.
132. 18th Cause of Action: Abuse of Process: Defendants used the court system to further Plaintiff's misery in an attempt to force her to take a plea to cover-up their wrong-doing and to win a bogus conviction on a disorderly conduct charge brought falsely, ill-investigated, maliciously, and with intent to shield evidence from the court.

133. 19th Cause of Action. Defamation/Injurious Falsehood: Defendants continued to make false statements about Plaintiff on the court record and off as well as concerning other court matters and when speaking with Domestic Violence advocates representing Plaintiff.

134. DAMAGES

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages in the amount of $30,000,000 together with attorney fees and court costs for defamation, loss of work, emotional pain and suffering. Plaintiff also seeks POLICY CHANGE for the way that Domestic Violence Survivors are treated within the criminal justice system when they come forward for help in extracting themselves from life-threatening intimate partner situations. A methodology and better training needs to be implemented for identifying true victims that is not subject to the whimsy of one lone prosecutor's bias(es). When a victim is thought to be a 'fabricator' a review of his/her case need to be examined by Domestic Violence advocates, therapists, social workers, and psychiatrists before they are denied protections, police services, social welfare services, a normal quality of life free from harm, and their ability to petition the government for redress of grievances. Recently, the Manhattan District Attorney Cyrus Vance has stated that his offices reviews 5,000 case of Domestic Violence a year. How many of these cases are labeled 'fabrications' by prosecutors with other motives or whom are too burdened by their case-loads and lack the acumen or incentive to make the right call? Plaintiff seeks transparency and public dialogue in order to ensure other victims don't slip through the cracks allowing their batterers to be emboldened to harm others and the victim to slip into emotional, psychological, social, physical and economic dire straights.

135. Plaintiff used to operate at very high-level as one of the most respected young photojournalism editors running war correspondents in and out of conflict zones (Exhibit #16). She is a graduate of Mount Holyoke College and attended the University of Colorado where she worked on her Master's degree: she won many academic awards and scholarships and endeavored to have a bright future ahead of her. Plaintiff ran the world's top photojournalists in and out of war zones and covered top stories on all fronts for over the past decade. (Exhibit # 16 list of some of Price's journalistic accomplishments.) She had achieved a high level of respect and admiration based on trust and love and solid, steady, cool-headed work. Now her life is literally in tatters. Credibility is key to the journalistic community and the pallor of criminality still follows her as a result of the malicious arrests and prosecutions. The emotional pain and suffering from these events has debilitating effects on Plaintiff who has literally lost everything she worked for: her personal identity, her career, her familial and social support networks, her unborn child, her apartment, her belongings, had her car repossessed, lost a pet because she did not have funds for vet bills, been ostracized from every thing and everyone that meant anything to her. She was at one time trusted and loved until her world fell apart because of these prosecutions by the people she turned to for help at her darkest, most helpless hour. Plaintiff more than anything wants her name back and wishes to continue to do the good work she was producing. She struggled to build a beautiful life for herself. Now she is trying to put the pieces of her life together but her troubles seem to compound as time slips by.

136. Plaintiff has been diagnosed with Complex Post-Traumatic-Stress-Disorder by Psychiatrists and therapists at the St. Luke's Roosevelt Hospital's Crime Victims Center where she has been in intensive Domestic Violence therapies and programs since 2011 and by the Psychiatric staff at Bellevue Hospital's 9/11 Survivors' Health Care Program. She suffers severe depression, bouts of racing thoughts, nausea, temperature swings, disassociation, mood-swings, sleeplessness, despair, weight fluctuations, digestive disorders and headaches.

137. DAMAGES DEMAND WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages of not less than $30 million;
- b. For punitive damages against the individual Defendants of $10 million;
- c. For reasonable attorneys' fees, together with costs and disbursements,
- d. pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1988 and to the inherent powers of this Court;

For pre-judgment interest as allowed by law; and For such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

138. The Manhattan District Attorney, Mr. Cyrus Vance, Jr., quoted Berger v S, 295 U.S. 78, 88 (1935) in his Recommendation for Dismissal of charges against DSK: "Along with the substantial power conferred upon prosecutors come unique responsibilities. Rather than serving only as a zealous advocate on behalf of a client, prosecutors have a broader set of obligations to the community, the victim, and the defendant:

"The [prosecutor] is the representative not of an ordinary party to a controversy, but of a sovereignty whose obligation to govern impartially is as compulsory as its obligation to govern at all; and whose interest, therefore, in a criminal prosecution is not that it shall win a case, but that justice shall be done. As such, he is in a peculiar and very definite sense the servant of the law, the twofold aim of which is that guilt shall not escape or innocence suffer."

How much longer must Ms. Price suffer?

Adam Gargani

To Whom It May Concern:

This reviews a phone conversation I had with the New York City's District Attorney's Office.

On February 2 of 2011 I received a voicemail message from Maria Strohben stating she was from the District Attorney's Office and was calling as part of a matter she was handling with one of my tenants, and requested a return call, which I did.

The matter involved Kelly Price who was my tenant at that time at 237 West 120th Street, #1 New York, NY 10027 from July of 2007 to August of 2013.

Miss Strohben had several questions to ask me concerning events that had taken place at the building. Specifically these involved incidents where the police had been called and other events that involved altercations between Ms. Price and a man.

Miss Strohben asked me about my knowledge of these events. In both the structure of the questions and the inflection with which these were asked, it was apparent that the purpose was to question whether these events happened, and as it was directly communicated, to question whether Ms. Price had been telling the truth, which she posed was not the case.

I informed Miss Strohben that I was aware of issues taking place by reports from my other tenants as well as conversations with Ms. Price. I told Miss Strohben that although I did not have any direct knowledge of what took place since I did not live at the building, and was not present when they occurred, I also had no reason to question the veracity of either the reports from my other tenants or Ms. Price.

I would characterize the reaction of Miss Strohben to my responses as frustrated or annoyed.

She indicated that she was dealing with Ms. Price and was looking to assemble information that refuted claims that Ms. Price had made. She suggested that Ms. Price had been making false statements. I told Miss Strohben that I although I could not comment on any specific event on the basis of other than what I had been told, that in my dealings with Ms. Price as a tenant in general I had no reason to presume that her claims, or the reports of my other tenants, were less than the truth.

The names of other tenants or neighbors were not requested.

Miss Strohbhen gave me the impression she was less than satisfied with the outcome of her call and ended it abruptly.

Sincerely,

Adam Gargani

Proceedings

1 THE COURT: His case was dismissed. He paid the 2 consequence of not being here.

3 I think the bigger issue is your client is about 4 to get arrested. And I am hearing that right now, and 5 perhaps that makes me concerned about whether I actually 6 need to continue an Order of Protection in this case,
7 because he is not getting arrested, she is getting arrested.

8 Detectives investigated the stories?

9 DETECTIVE SIMMONS: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And don't find her story to be 11 credible?

12 DETECTIVE SIMMONS: No.

13 MR. GREENBERG: We have a couple of competing 14 issues. Issue number one, and perhaps not the most 15 important, but I think it should be before Your Honor before 16 the case is discussed before you, no request was made of my 17 office to surrender Ms. Price, notwithstanding the fact that 18 I had lengthy conversations with detectives at the 28
19 Precinct, including Detective Flowers, who is, presumably, 20 going to be the detective arresting Ms. Price today.

21 I had a conversation with Mr. Flowers for over 22 five minutes, and at no time did he ask me to bring 23 Ms. Price in, nor had any request been made to me or to 24 Ms. Price' other attorney to bring her in. She would have 25 been brought in and this exercise, perhaps, would have been

Proceedings

1 avoided or at least postponed. That's issue one, Your 2 Honor.

3 Number two, there was an Order of Protection
4 sought against Mr. Powell, whose acts of violence against 5 Ms. Price are well documented by hospital reports and so
6 forth. The detectives have come in here, and I understand 7 their responsibilities, as they see them, but they come in 8 here without any adjudication at all based on, solely, the 9 word of Mr. Powell, whom Your Honor has already awarded 10 Orders of Protection against, presumably, because Your Honor 11 was satisfied.

12 THE COURT: Excuse me.

13 An ex-parte Order of Protection -- Everyone comes 14 in here and does an ex-parte the first time, and I -- This 15 is the first time I have the parties in front of me.

16 MR. GREENBERG: That's true.

17 Not all ex-partes. Ms. Price had been here
18 before.

19 MR. O'HEARN: The most recent one was ex-parte
20 because he didn't show up, but that's not the initial one.
21 There was evidence that satisfied Your Honor to issue an 22 Order of Protection, apparently, where Mr. Powell was here 23 on prior occasions.

24 MR. GREENBERG: My recollection, Your Honor, is 25 when I was here three or four weeks ago, Your Honor stated

I flew into a waiting limo cab. The driver of the cab witnessed Raheem walk by and there was video tape from a surveillance camera on 233 W. 120th. He made no attempt to avoid contact with me or cross the street when he saw me coming up the stairs out of my brownstone apt. onto the side walk. He then made a funny face @ me & crossed in front of the car as we tried to pull away.

To whom it may concern:

I was a neighbor of Kelly Price when she lived at 237 West 120th Street. I am a manager in Con Edison where I have worked for over 26 years. I have approximately 70 employees in my chain of command. I lived on the street for over 12 years, walk my dog every day and know and get along with my neighbors.

In the spring and summer of 2011 and later in 2012, there were some problems on the street related to young teenagers from other blocks hanging out on 120th street vandalizing cars, the school yard, fighting in the streets and being somewhat threatening to others. As a result, a group of us from the block attended monthly meetings at the police station to make our issues known there and to get further on-going support from the police and the community officer. The police were very helpful, offered a lot of support and worked with us and the principal at the local school and facilitated the problem going away.

After the formal meeting, the head of the station, Captain Rodney Harrison, invited attendees to speak with him personally about issues of concern. I went up to him after one of these meetings and asked him why more was not being done to help Kelly Price, who everyone knew was being battered. I was concerned because the young teenagers seemed to be learning the wrong thing from the situation. At that time, Captain Harrison told me that he had never seen anything like it, but he/the police were told to not respond to Kelly Price without the direct instruction of the District Attorney's office. He said it was strange but indicated that, to some extent, his hands were tied.

I found his response really surprising, so it stood out in my mind. I don't remember when or in what circumstances I came to be telling Kelly Price the details of my interaction with Captain Harrison.

Please feel free to contact me, should I be able to assist you further.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

I was one of Kelly Price's neighbors when she lived at 237 west 120th Street. I have lived at 235 west 120th Street for five years. I am an attorney and have been a member of the New York State Bar for over seven years.

During the course of our relationship as neighbors Kelly shared with me the trouble she was having obtaining police assistance from members of the 28th Precinct on multiple occasions when she had been attacked by people in our neighborhood, including her ex intimate partner, Raheem Powell. I did not witness the events or attacks Price described to me, but she would cry on my shoulder whenever was assaulted, often by women whom Kelly believed were associated with her ex, his alleged drug dealing associates, or childhood cronies. Kelly was particularly dismayed that the police refused to take her reports, follow up on assaults against her person, or regard her as a member of society needing protection in general. She told me that officers in the precinct told her that the district attorney's office had instructed them not to assist her. Candidly, I did not entirely believe that the police would refuse Kelly, and I suspected that it was likely she was omitting some dispositive reason why the police were reluctant to intervene on her behalf against her various alleged attackers.

On the evening of October 17, 2012, Kelly called me crying and asking for my help. I observed her distraught and injured after being assaulted in broad daylight on the corner of our block, at 120th Street and St. Nicholas Avenue, while she was en route to her home from the 125th Street subway at approximately 5:30 p.m. I observed that she was disheveled, her stockings were torn, and her knees and hands were bruised and bloodied. Kelly was nearly hysterical and I had to calm her down and give her medical assistance. Kelly related that a purported heroin dealer named Willy who was known to many residents in the neighborhood (he operated his business from a visible stoop on Saint Nicholas Avenue) had "jumped" her and hit her in the face, spit at her and pushed her onto the sidewalk while screaming insults at her. I do not recall what Kelly had said to him before or after the attack, but I do recall that she did not provoke or retaliate against him physically. I took pictures of Kelly and her wounds, and encouraged her to call 911 for assistance in reporting the crime. Kelly stated that she already had called the 28th Precinct and that a patrol car had been sent to the scene of the assault. Kelly said that when the officers arrived they refused to take her report and called her crazy. Kelly also stated that she had then walked to the precinct a block or so away for help and been rebuffed by the desk sergeant who Kelly said ridiculed and mocked her. Notwithstanding her story that she had sought police intervention earlier that day, I insisted that she call 911 again and report the chain of events. She complied.

Eventually another patrol car with Officers from the 28th precinct arrived in front of the brownstone we lived in. Two police officers, whom Kelly has since reminded me were named PO Longo (shield # 31565) and PO Walker, related to us that they were instructed by the station's Desk Sergeant not to take Kelly's reports. PO Walker stated that the District Attorney's office had instructed the precinct not to respond to any of Kelly's calls. I recall being genuinely shocked and outraged to hear this instruction, and further surprised that a young woman, like PO Walker, would be tasked by her superiors with being complicit in such a scheme that leaves domestic violence victims without recourse for protection. At this juncture, I introduced myself as an officer of the court and member of the NY State Bar, and pressed the officers by reminding them of their legal and ethical responsibilities to provide complainants with police services. I recall that the officers responded more favorably to me than they did to Kelly, but I could not discern whether this was the case because I notified them that I am an attorney, or because I'm just someone other than Kelly Price. PO Walker stated that she would take basic information about the incident, but she believed that once the precinct began to process the event that it most likely would be circular-filed in the trash bin. PO Longo gave Kelly an incident ID slip and told her to follow up with the precinct in a few days, then both officers left. I was then, and remain dumbfounded by what I witnessed transpire that evening.

As a single young woman living and working in NYC, it unsettled me that the police could be so cavalier about the safety of Kelly Price. Kelly has since told me that the complaint number she was given months later when she inquired as to why no one had ever followed up with her about the incident was 2012-28-005194. Kelly also informs me that the detective squad at the 28th Precinct closed her incident report without contacting her to identify the perpetrator of the attack or review the emergency room reports or follow-on orthopedic assessments describing Price's injuries resulting from the attack.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Walker

Re: F.O.I.L. Appeal

Dear Ms. Price:

The New York County District Attorney's Office received your Freedom of Information Law (F.O.I.L.) appeal. As the F.O.I.L. Appeals Officer, I have reviewed our file and am prepared to rule on this matter.

You appeal the determination made by Assistant District Attorney Christina Maloney, the Records Access Officer assigned to your request. The substance of the argument in your appeal is that documents from the case files are not exempt under to F.O.I.L. because there is no pending judicial proceeding. Although ADA Maloney was correct in her assessment that you have a pending matter related to the requested cases, it is civil in nature and its disposition will have no effect on the closed criminal cases you request access to.

As such, I am remanding your original request back to ADA Maloney so that she may make a de novo determination. The case files will need to be ordered before she can make a determination on your request, so allow until August 16, 2014 for her determination or update.

In accordance with the above discussion, your appeal is dismissed at this time.

Sincerely,

Susan C. Roque

Patricia Bailey
FOIA Appeals Officer
Manhattan District Attorney's Office
City of New York

New York, NY 10013

cc. ADA Christina Maloney, DA Cyrus Vance Jr.

Ref: Appeal of FOIA Request Denial

Dear Ms. Bailey

On June 26, 2014, I filed a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request with the MDAO, requesting all correspondence, memoranda, documents, reports, records, statements, audits, lists of names, applications, diskettes, letters, expense logs and receipts, calendar or diary logs, facsimile logs, telephone records, call sheets, tape/audio recordings, video/movie recordings, notes, examinations, database entries, opinions, folders, files, books, manuals, pamphlets, forms, drawings, charts, photographs, electronic mail, and other documents and things that refer of relate to myself, Kelly Price, DOB 11/27/70 ssn 521 55 0356, any and all criminal investigations, investigatory materials and surveillance logs as well as all audio and video materials in which my name, voice or image is seen, heard or invoked involving any other persons or entities within twenty (20) business days. In a response letter dated July 3, 2014, ADA Christina Maloney denied my request citing that:

"You have filed a lawsuit in New York State Supreme Court (Kelly Price v. the City of New York, et. Al. Index No. 101414/2013). Your request for documents regarding the underlying criminal cases is denied, as disclosure would interfere with the pending judicial proceeding. Public Officers Law § 87(2)(e)(I)."

This letter respectfully appeals the determination of Ms. Maloney. The information requested under FOIA must be disclosed because the "Judicial Proceeding" exemption of the FOIA does not apply as the underlying criminal case(s) has/have been dismissed and/or resolved. The FOIA exemption cited by Maloney [NY State Public Officers Law § 87(2)(e)(I)] provides protections for information compiled for law enforcement purposes and stems from FOIA 5 U.S.C. §552 (b)(7). The intention behind this exemption is to allow agencies to withhold law enforcement documents in order to prevent interference with the enforcement process.

According to FOIA 5 U.S.C. §552 (b)(7):

Exemption 7 has six sub exemptions and Exemption 7A protects information because of a 'Judicial Proceeding' that could interfere with law enforcement proceedings, thus protecting ACTIVE investigations. This exemption is applicable only if an investigation is pending or planned and the release of the information will compromise the investigation.

In the matter of Castle House Dev. Inc. v. The City of New York Justice Schlesinger states in regard to the NYPD's denial of petitioner's FOIA request by citing the same NY Public Officer Law [§ 87(2) (e) ((I)] that: "As far as what was known then and now, there was no continuing law enforcement proceeding extant and the only known Judicial Proceeding was the aforementioned tort action in King's County." Justice Schlesinger goes on to explain how a civil action is not the same as a criminal action in seeking to use its existence as a remedy against disclosing information sought on a FOIA request by labeling the civil action as a criminal one; "This exemption is not a viable one in circumstances such as this, a pending civil action." (Castle House Development Inc. v City of New York Police Dept. 2009 NY Slip OP 51553 (U) [24 MISC 3d 1222 (A)] Justice A Schlesinger 7/10/2009. SUPREME COURT NY COUNTY.

In Maloney's Motion to Dismiss filed with NY Supreme Court on April 10, 2014 she states that "The facts below are gleaned from the records of the DA's Office and recitations made by plaintiff; however, much of the plaintiff's record is sealed..." Maloney herself admits in this statement that my record is sealed and thus NOT AN ACTIVE INVESTIGATION and thus not subject to the "Judicial Proceedings" exemption as she has wrongly and unlawfully asserted. Additionally in order to successfully assert the "Judicial Proceedings" exemption for a FOIA request that Agency or Actor asserting the denial must state how the release of the information will compromise said investigation. Maloney has made no attempt to show in what way granting my FOIA request would interfere with the civil tort action I have brought vs. individuals in the MDAO, the NYPD and the City of New York.

Justice Schlesinger goes on to further review and discuss how Judge Kaye of the Appellant court made it clear in the opening lines of her unanimous Appellant court finding that in the case of M. Farbman & Sons v. New York City Health and Hospitals Corp et al., 62 NY2d 78 (1984): "Access to records of a government agency under the Freedom of Information Law...is not affected by the fact that there is pending a litigation between the person making the request and the agency." Schlesinger further cites this Court of Appeals decision that: "an agency's public records remain as available to its litigation adversary as to any other person...In the absence of indication from the Legislature, we refuse to read into FOIL the restriction that, once litigation commences, a party forfeits the rights available to all other members of the public."

Finally regarding the provisions of the FOIA statute and of particular note:

- II. If any responsive record or portion thereof is claimed to be exempt from production under FOIA, sufficient identifying information (with respect to each allegedly exempt record or portion thereof) must be provided to allow the assessment of the propriety of the claimed exemption. Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir 1973), cert denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1974). Additionally any reasonably segregable portion of a responsive record must be provided after redaction of any allegedly exempt material to me, as the law requires. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b).
- II. Ms. Maloney has issued an adverse FOIA records determination in response to my request and as such she was required to (1) notify the requester of the right to appeal; (2) identify the appeals officer and the officer's contact information; and (3) state the date when the appeal letter must be received by the officer and; (4) address my request for all fees to be waived. As Maloney failed to satisfy the requirements of the first, third and fourth FOIA stipulations I have the right to initiate court action immediately. Please do respond to this FOIA APPEAL in a timely fashion (within twenty days of receipt of this letter.)
- III. In order to help to determine my status for purposes of determining the applicability of any fees, you should know that I am willing to pay fees up to the amount of $250.00 USD which is a considerable hardship but an attainable one for me. If the fees will exceed this amount, please inform me before fees are incurred. I can be contacted via email or telephone if necessary to discuss any aspect of this request.

In conclusion: it pains me greatly as a fourth-generation daughter of the City of New York to witness the widespread malpractice and disregard for the letter of the laws of our country that I have been confronted with at every turn in my interactions with the MDAO since approaching them for assistance in extracting myself from a life-threatening intimate-partner situation. My family members have fought in wars, I myself have been on the frontlines of attacks on our nation, and have lost many friends and colleagues who have died in the name of these same laws that are disregarded, willfully misinterpreted and misappropriated to justify unlawful actions by the members of the MDAO. Please Ms. Bailey: let this epidemic that has swept the masses of young, mewling ingénues stocking the brigades of the MDAO stop with you.

Sincerely,

Kelly Price
